Log-in information has been sent to you via email. Make quick notes for your script before recording the voice-over. Use any template or infographic template on the site.

1. Your video should be short—approx. 90 sec. long
2. Your audience for the video: the other students and your instructor (me).
3. Connect with the viewer & hook their attention. State the problem. Examples:
What is the significance of masks?
What culture made them?
Why do Native cultures make masks?
4. Describe your expertise about the region, types of masks and culture
5. Describe details about the area
6. Call to action: Give a website, blog or museum site to visit that you used as reference.

Upload your video to the classroom blog.
